Unified Conferencing Collaboration

TIMMINS, ON – March 22, 2006 – You won't require your car keys, airline tickets, or your passport for your next meeting with your European clients or anyone else for that matter.

Advancements in telecommunications allow you to conduct business meetings, workshops, conferences and conversations through video right from your home or office. If you'd like to learn more about the latest in real time conferencing, then plan to attend NEOnet's Tech Break Time technology luncheon on Tuesday, March 28th, 2006. Jamie Pouw of NorthernTel will be discussing a video conferencing bridging solution that can make it easier for people to communicate anytime anywhere.

Admission is free, and lunch is available at the participants' expense. The event will run from 12:00 p.m. until 1:00 p.m. at Siva's Family Restaurant (at the Timmins Square).

For more information on Tech Break Time or to register for this month's event, contact Chris McLaughlin at 705.360.1353 ext 1 or cmclaughlin@neonet.on.ca.

Note: NEOnet is a regional non-profit technology development organization working to improve telecommunications services and ICT adoption in Northeastern Ontario.
